A GOOD LIAR.

He Finally Came to Believe His Own Yarn Was True.
The usual party of evening town goats had gathered in front of the postoffice when Hattus, a good hearted old clerk, said:
"Folks, I know a man who tells lies to such effect that he sometimes believes his own yarn. You've heard of them people, haven't you?
Listen. He was passing by a restaurant. He was very hungry, he went in to get something to eat.
But when he got inside he saw that every seat was occupied. Then he thought a minute and suddenly said just as loud so that every one could hear him:
"Have you heard?"
"Of course every one said 'What?'"
"Why," said he, "there's a whale down in the dock that they just captured last night. It's all around and up within the railroads and steamers. He's only got a few minutes to eat."
"Of course every one jumped up and ran down to see the whale. That was just what he wanted, so sitting down he ordered his dinner and began to eat. Suddenly he looked out the window, and there was everybody running to the docks—police, Chinamen and all—and he said:
"By golly, I guess it's not
"And he ran down there himself."

that the residence of Dr. M. W.

damage was done.

Judge Thurman spent last week campaigning in Green county and was greeted at every place by large and enthusiastic crowds. Some of those who oppose him have tried to make it appear that the Judge had poor crowds but we are reliably informed that larger crowds greeted him than have ever turned out to hear a political speech in the rural districts of the county. He is speaking this week in Taylor county and is having large crowds.
